

PRIVACY POLICY

Your privacy is very important to us. Accordingly, we have developed this policy to help you understand how we collect, use, communicate, and manage personal information. The following outlines our privacy policy.

When you access the Mikiya.me website, we collect certain information about you during your visit.

Like other commercial websites, our website utilizes a standard technology called “cookies” (see explanation below) and server logs to collect information about how our site is used. Information gathered through cookies and server logs may include the date and time of visits, the pages viewed, the time spent at our site, and the websites visited immediately before and after our own, as well as your IP address.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a very small text document that often includes an anonymous, unique identifier. When you visit a website, that site’s computer asks your computer for permission to store this file in a part of your hard drive specifically designated for cookies. Each website can send its own cookie to your browser if your browser’s preferences allow it, but (to protect your privacy) your browser only permits a website to access the cookies it has already sent to you, not the cookies sent to you by other sites.

IP Addresses

IP addresses are used by your computer every time you are connected to the Internet. Your IP address is a unique number assigned to your computer by the network to identify it. IP addresses are automatically collected by our web server as part of demographic and profile data known as “traffic data” so that data (such as the Web pages you request) can be sent to you.

Information Collection & Use

Effective date: February 5, 2024, Mikiya Skin Essentials (“us”, “we”, or “our”) operates the <http://www.mikiya.me> website (the “Service”). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of personal data when you use our Service and the choices you have associated with that data. We use your data to provide and improve the Service. By using the Service, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

We collect various types of information for different purposes to provide and improve our Service to you.

While using our Service, we may ask you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you (“Personal Data”). Personally identifiable information may include, but is not limited to:

Tracking & Cookies Data

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies to track the activity on our Service and hold certain information. Cookies are files with small amounts of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a website and stored on your device. Some Tracking technologies used are beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze our Service. You can instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our Service. Examples of Cookies we use:

- Session Cookies. We use Session Cookies to operate our Service.
- Preference Cookies. We use Preference Cookies to remember your preferences and various settings.
- Security Cookies. We use Security Cookies for security purposes.
- DoubleClick DART cookie:
 - Google, as a third-party vendor, uses cookies to serve ads on your site.
 - Google’s use of the DART cookie enables it to serve ads to your users based on their visit to your sites and other sites on the Internet.
 - Users may opt out of the use of the DART cookie by visiting the Google ad and content network privacy policy – http://www.google.com/privacy_ads.html

Once you leave our website or are redirected to a third-party website or application, you are no longer governed by this Privacy Policy or our website’s Terms of Service.

Third-party vendors, including Google, use cookies to serve ads based on a user’s prior visits to your website or other websites. Google’s use of advertising cookies enables it and its partners to serve ads to your users based on their visit to your sites and/or other sites on the Internet. Users may opt out of personalized advertising by visiting Ads Settings. (Alternatively, you can direct users to opt out of a third-party vendor’s use of cookies for personalized advertising by visiting www.aboutads.info.)

We may also use third-party advertisements to support our site. Some of these advertisers may use technology such as cookies and web beacons when they advertise on our site, which will also send these advertisers (such as Google through the Google AdSense program) information, including your IP address, your ISP, the browser you used to visit our site, and, in some cases, whether you have Flash installed.

This is generally used for geotargeting purposes (for example, showing Virginia real estate ads to someone in Virginia) or displaying certain ads based on specific sites visited (such as showing home and gardening ads to someone who frequently visits home and garden sites).

You can choose to disable or selectively turn off our cookies or third-party cookies in your browser settings, or by managing preferences in your anti-virus/malware computer security. However, this can affect how you interact with our site, as well as other websites. This could include the inability to log in to services or programs, such as logging into your account.
